NEW SEASON BRINGS BIG CHANGES

New Varsity Head Coach

Due to a situation beyond his control Harvey Washington will not be able to return as the Head Coach of the Flyers Varsity in 2010. With the departure of Coach Washington, the Flyers implemented there Head Coach replacement policy. The three Head Coaches (including Coach Washington) each had the opportunity to recommend a candidate to fill the void at the varsity level. After the process was completed the new Varsity Head Coach was named at the Flyers 2/17/10 Director's Meeting.

Its official Coach Dwayne Jackson will take over the helm on the varsity level. Coach Jackson leaves the Freshman level where he and his staff has performed quite well. The Freshman Flyers have made the play-offs in each of his years as head coach and have won one championship.

Coach Jackson is tasked with setting the new Varsity Coaching Staff. Coach Jackson has the option of retaining the entire staff or creating an entirely new staff.

New Freshman Head Coach

With Coach Jackson moving from Freshman to Varsity another empty Head Coaching slot was created. The Flyers Board of Directors have selected Carl Pierce as the new Freshman Head Coach. Carl has been a member of the Freshman Staff for several years. He has held the Defensive Coordinator position as well as the Assistant Head Coach's position on the Freshman Staff.

Coach Pierce is tasked with setting the new Freshman Coaching Staff. Coach Pierce has the option of retaining the entire staff or creating an entirely new staff.

Coach Wester Retains the JV Head Coaching Position

The JV Coaching Staff remains in tact. Head Coach John Wester did indicate that there is a potential that his job may interfere with his availability late in the season.

Coach Wester named Coach Glenn Carr as his successor if he should have to take a leave of absence due to his job. Coach Carr presently is the Assistant Head Coach of the JV. Coach Carr was previously the Varsity Head coach prior to a very short retirement.
